Foreword

We are glad to have had the opportunity to bring you the 1952 edition of "The Memoir." In this book we have attempted to record many of the happy memories of this school year which would not have been possible without the co-operation of the merchants from this and the surrounding communities. It is our hope that you will find enjoyment in it.

In Memoriam

MR. POLLAN

A visitor to the garden of St. Francis of Assisi asked him what he would do if he were sure that he would die that night. He replied without hesitation: "I would finish hoeing my garden."

Mr. Pollan was one of the long line of strong and valuable men who cherished this creed. Having set himself at the tasks he liked and knew to be worthy, he worked that he might bring love where there was hate; pardon where there was offense; union in place of discord; truth instead of error; faith where once there was doubt; hope for despair, always forgetting himself that he might finish "hoeing his garden", too.

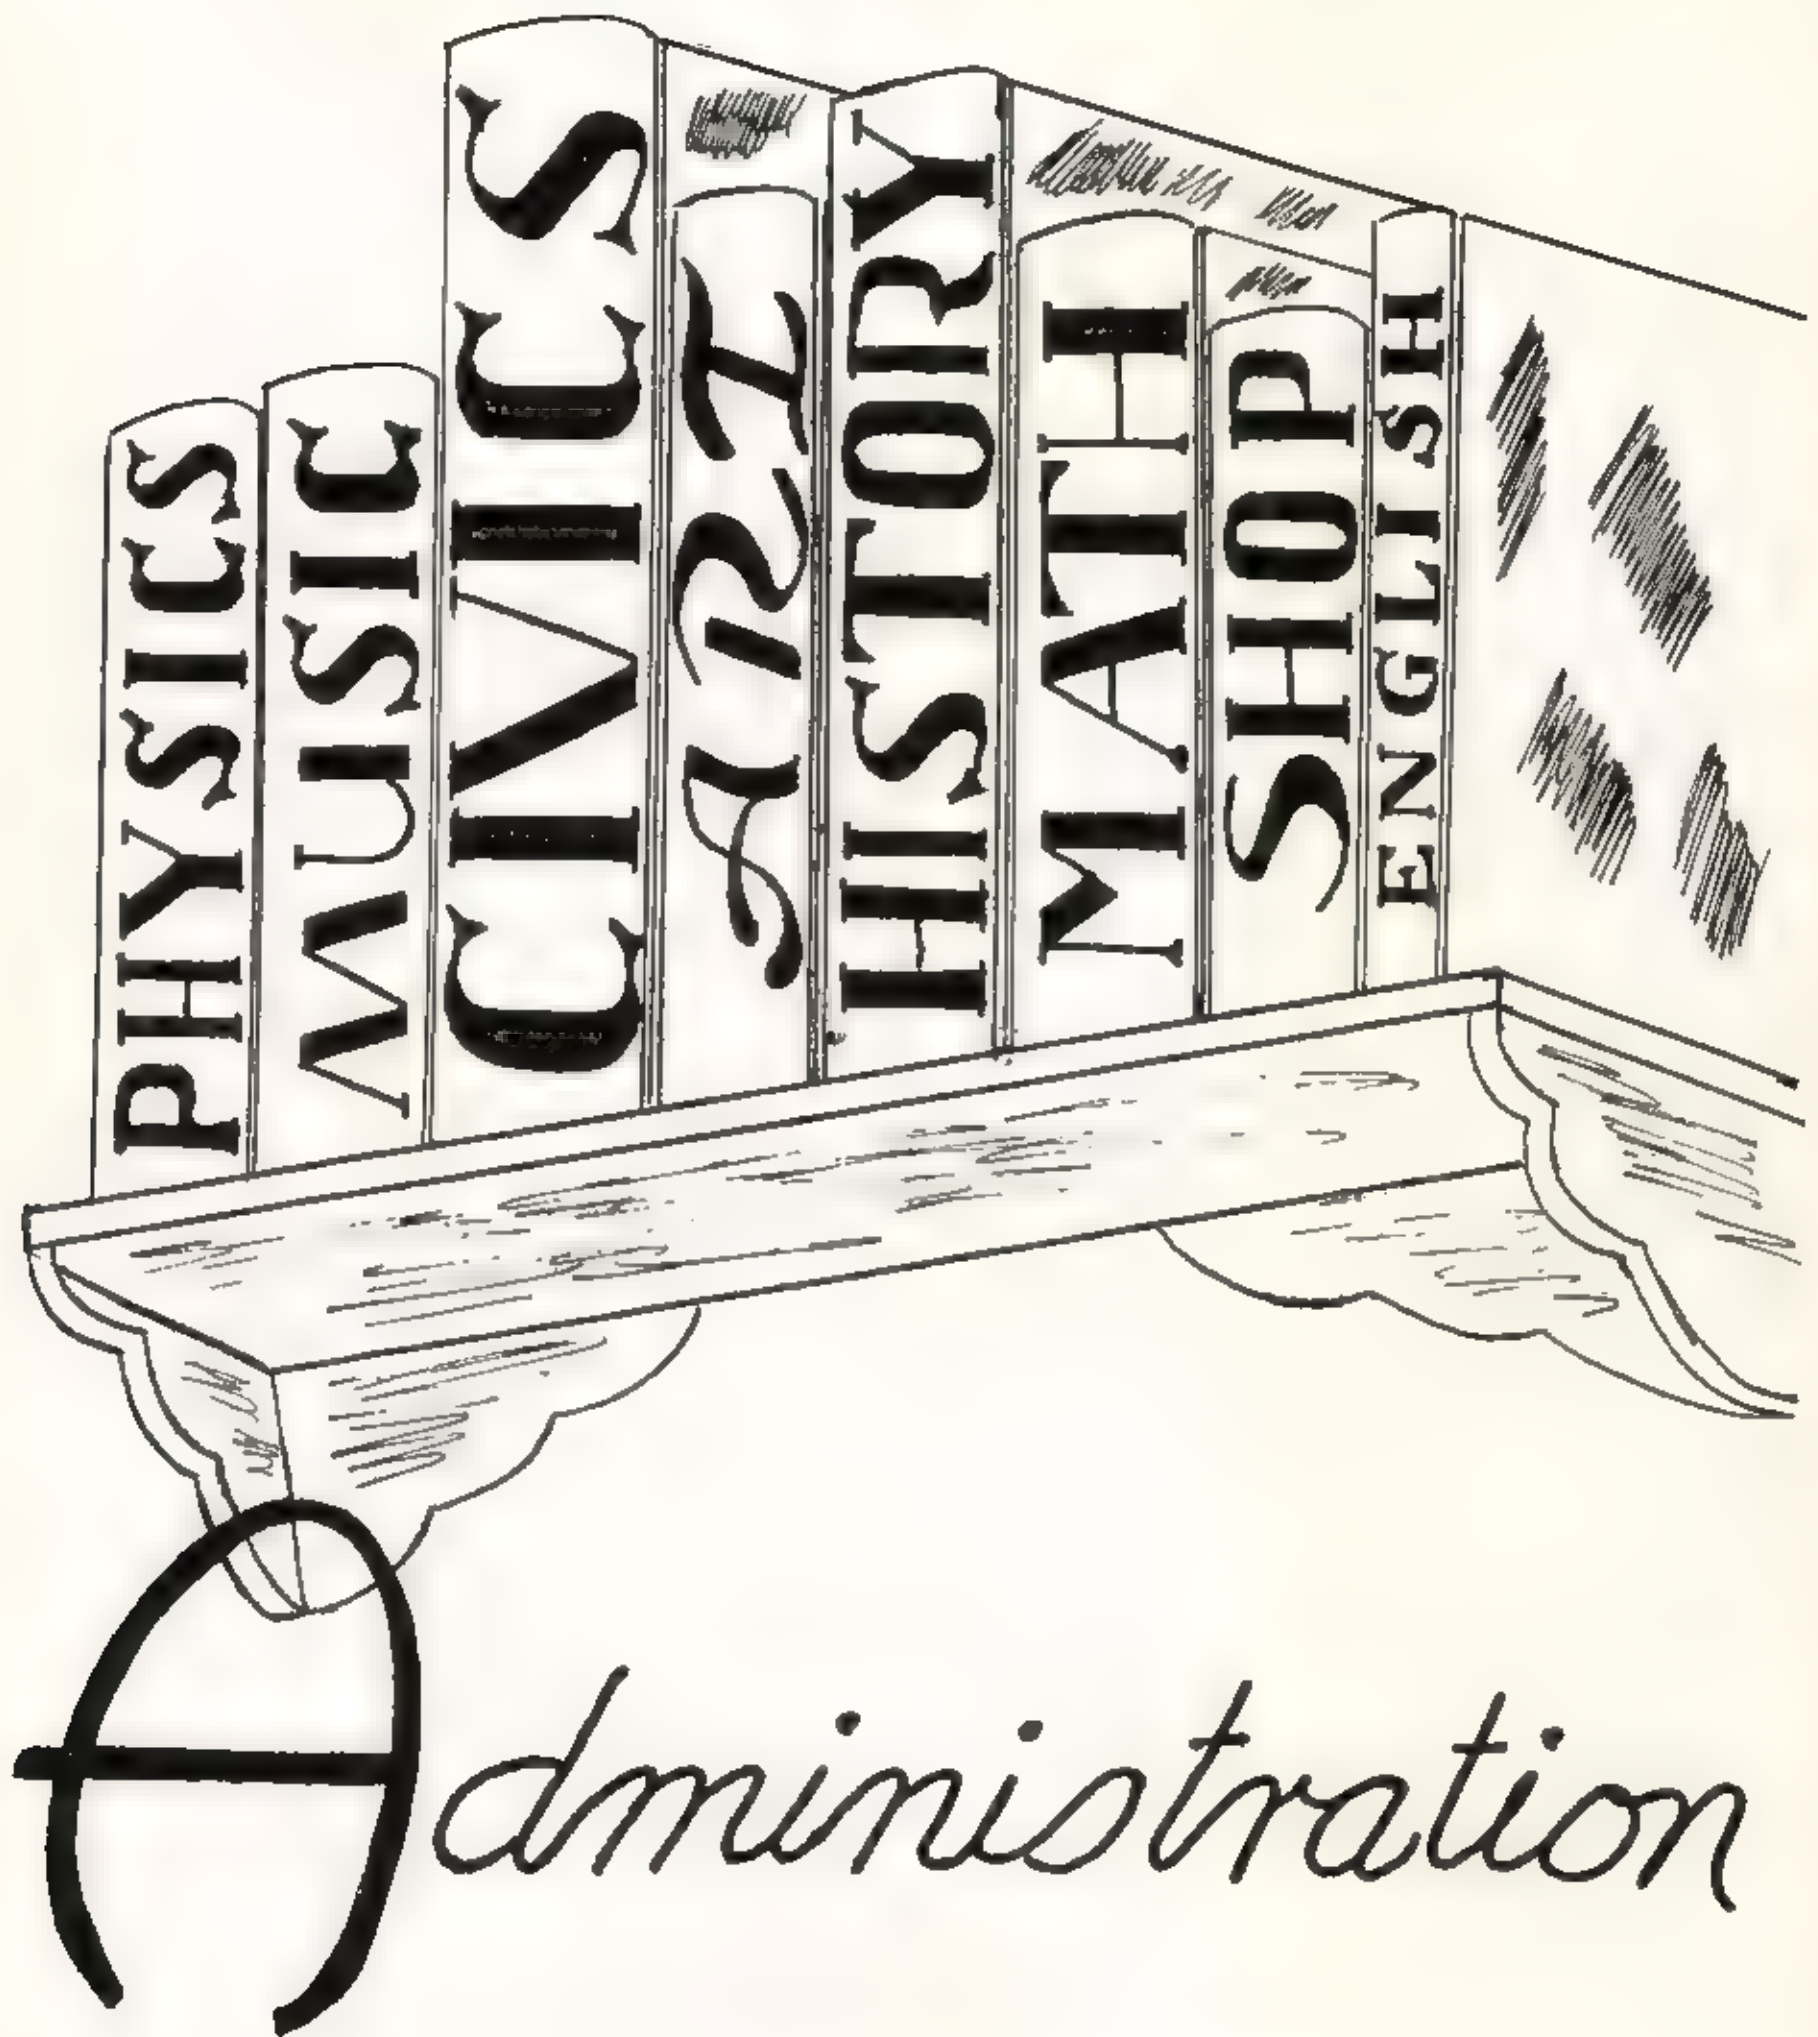

Dedication

In appreciation of the work done by our room mothers, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Trussell and Mrs. Rice, whose patience, loyalty, and friendship have endeared them to the hearts of the Senior Class, we wish to pay tribute by dedicating our yearbook to them.

Congratulations are due to the Senior Class, the Staff, and all those who have in any way contributed to this review of school life as pictured in this, the 1952 edition of The Memoir. This volume represents the ninth volume in the efforts to portray the achievements of the Ferris School in a yearbook. Let us continue to "carry on" in its traditional way of building for the future.

J. M. Lewis

May my best wishes go with you in whatever work you may pursue. I feel confident that the experiences you have had while attending Ferris High School have been such that you have formed interests, skills, habits, appreciations, attitudes, and understandings that will assist you in future, intelligent behavior.

Above all, I wish for you the best of happiness and success.

Experience...not an Experiment

Handwritten musical score on aged paper, featuring lyrics and a drawing of a building.

Lyrics:

Faith — ful still to Black and

Image:

A drawing of a building with a chimney and a flag flying on a pole. The building is a simple, rectangular structure with a chimney on the right side. A flag is flying on a pole in front of the building. The drawing is done in a simple, sketchy style.
